

Dear colleagues,

We are pleased to announce that the newest issue of the Circular of the Network for Cooperation in Integrated Water Resource Management for Sustainable Development in Latin America and the Caribbean is now available. To access the 32th issue directly, please visit (PDF, about 0.2 MB):

<http://www.eclac.org/drni/noticias/circulares/5/40365/Carta32in.pdf>

The 32th issue of the Circular includes articles on corruption in the water sector, investment protection treaties and the formulation of public policy, cooperation of the Natural Resources and Infrastructure Division with the water supply and sanitation authorities of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, Chile, Guatemala and Peru, Seminar "International Investment Agreements, Sustainability of Infrastructure Investments and Regulatory and Contractual Measures", Water Protection Fund (FONAG) in Ecuador, National Policy for Integrated Water Resource Management of Colombia, Environmental Water Management Law of the Autonomous City of Buenos Aires, Argentina, Law on Guiding Principles of National Water Policy of Uruguay, Millennium Development Goals: Advances in Environmentally Sustainable Development in Latin America and the Caribbean, Water resource management in Chile: proposal for an integrated management model for the Maipo-Mapocho basin, and Agenda for sustainable management of water, river basins and mining in Peru.

We also have an EXTREMELY LIMITED stock of hard copies of this Circular. Hard copies (printed version by air mail; individual copies) are available free of charge while our extremely limited supplies last. Requests should be sent, until 29 October 2010, to Andrei.JOURAVLEV@cepal.org, INDICATING CLEARLY YOUR COMPLETE MAILING/POSTAL ADDRESS.  Please, do NOT SEND REQUESTS TO THE LIST (do not use "REPLY"), but directly to Andrei.JOURAVLEV@cepal.org **

Yours sincerely,

Andrei S. Jouravlev
Economic Affairs Officer
Natural Resources and Infrastructure Division
Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean (ECLAC)
